To Whom It May Concern:

Letter of Recommendation for David Plumlee

David Plumlee has worked as a Corporate Training English Teacher with inlingua International School of Languages, Bangkok since July 2016.

David has taught a very wide range of General, Academic and Business English communication courses with inlingua, and has also been involved in projects which require working very closely with clients on needs analysis, objective setting, custom materials design and student and course evaluation.

David has consistently performed in a highly professional and dedicated manner, his courses are always thoroughly prepared and feedback from learners and colleagues alike is consistently excellent. He has taught almost 60 corporate groups and many 1:1 Executive classes with inlingua Corporate Training Department, and David invariably ranks at the top in student feedback and evaluation forms.

David has an obvious interest in language and learning, and he constantly seeks opportunities for professional development. He has shown an exceptional ability to work independently, often producing excellent teaching materials in his own time, which he freely shares with both the school and with colleagues.

I am very confident that David would excel in any teaching role.

Please contact me if you need further information.

Yours faithfully
